

The background of the image is a night sky with a gradient from dark blue at the top to orange and red at the bottom. A bright, multi-pointed star is centered in the upper half, with rays of light extending downwards. Several smaller stars are scattered across the sky. In the foreground, the silhouettes of the nativity scene are visible against the horizon. From left to right, there are two figures, a manger with a baby inside, another figure, and a figure holding a staff.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation, formerly RCIA) Are you or someone you know interested in becoming Catholic? Were you baptized Catholic but never received First Communion or Confirmation? Call the parish office for details.

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated one Sunday each month except during Advent, Lent and the summer months. In order to baptize your child at St. Cassian, the family must be registered parishioners. Parents, and godparents if available, must attend a preparation class (7:00 PM) prior to the date of baptism (1:00PM). Please contact the Parish Office, (973) 744-2850, to make arrangements for the date of baptism. Scan here to download Parish Registration Form

Arrangements to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage must be made at least one year before the desired date. Do not make firm plans for the reception prior to speaking with a priest. Call the Parish Office, (973) 744-2850, to speak with a priest.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick brings the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. It is not necessary to wait until the point of death for anointing. Contact a priest through the Parish Office, (973) 744-2850.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated every Saturday between 4:15PM-5:00PM in the church or at another time convenient to the priest and penitent.

KALIKANTZARI (COLEE-KAHN-TSAR-EE)

As the world journeys toward the great Feast of the Nativity of Christ, many different peoples and cultures revive and recall old legends, customs, and folklore associated with the many days of the Christmas Celebration.

During these pre-holiday preparations there always seems to be an atmosphere of frenetic anxiousness, excitement and of course, stress.

Much must be accomplished, much must be made ready to enjoy the High Holy Days of Christmastide with our families, friends and neighbors. The closer to December 24th, the greater the seasonal rush. And because of this, accidents, misunderstandings, forgetfulness, frustration, and even sometimes harsh words are exchanged.

In Hellenic Folklore, all these actions and reactions are attributed to the “KALIKANTZARI,” who are meddling, mischievous, and chaotic trolls—like gnomes who arrive from the depths of the Earth to create trouble. Being creatures from the “dark side,” their envious purpose is to create disruptions and havoc at all costs so that Christians preparing for the Nativity Celebration will be distracted and will lose focus of the importance of the appearance of the Christ Child.

It is only after the Blessing of Sacred Epiphany Water and the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord in the Jordan River that they retreat to the realm of the underworld until the next Christmas Feast approaches.

So, at this time of the year; if you are grumpy, weary, tired, edgy, short-tempered, and perhaps inwardly angry, consider whether you have not be victimized by one of the KALIKANZTARI.

NAMEDAY—ONOMASTICO—IMIENINY

It's very encouraging that in recent years there is a revival of the Old-World Catholic tradition of remembering and celebrating one's "Nameday."

Our Christian Catholic tradition has always emphasized the importance of having a personal patron saint. For centuries, it was the custom to give an infant at Baptism the name of a particular saint or blessed. If not the first name, then definitely a middle name from the church's long list of Heroes and Heroines of God.

Namedays and Patronal Feast Days have always emphasized a special, personal relationship between us and those made victorious through Christ—The Saints.

While we never seem to forget to celebrate birthdays, it is a very commendable event when we also highlight the spiritual dignity and potential of a particular baptized person.

The signs and symbols surrounding a Nameday celebration can include a Mass intention, a spiritual bouquet, a delicious meal, a greeting card, a party, flowers, chocolates, a festive Nameday cake, gifts, and champagne.

Unlike birthdays, which sometimes overemphasize our biological age, Namedays recognize and honor that special person without mercilessly mentioning their age.

Our Pastor, Father Steve, celebrates his Nameday on the Second Day of Christmas, December 26th. Steven, Stephen, Estaban, Istvan, Etienne, Stefano, Szczepan, and Stepan all honor the Proto Martyr and Archdeacon who was one of the first followers to witness to the Risen Christ through his glorious life and brutal death.

Do you have a Patron Saint? On what calendar date should you remember to celebrate your special Feast Day?

PLEASE HELP HOWEVER YOU CAN!

We will be collecting bar soap, bleach, detergents, and any of the usual items we collect on the weekends of December 28 & 29 and January 4 & 5.

Thank you for your continued generosity.

Home Visits

If you are unable to come to church or if you know a relative or friend who finds it difficult to come to church, let us know. We have many dedicated and caring Eucharistic Ministers who would be happy to bring Communion to you or to your loved ones who are homebound. Fr. Steve would be more than happy to make a visit to someone’s home if they wish to go to confession, receive communion, or receive the anointing of the sick. Call the Parish Office if you would like someone to visit you at home.

Teen Mass · December 1, 2024

God is so good! On Sunday, December 1st, sixty-five young people of the parish in grades six through twelve attended a Teen Mass specifically for the young people of the parish to focus on the significance of the holy season of Advent. The mass was beautiful—it included the readings and music for the First Sunday of Advent and Father Steve delivered a homily aimed at reaching the hearts and minds of our parish youth.

Father's homily advised that there are two kinds of people in the world—watchers and doers. He encourages us to be doers, to not live in fear and to instead trust that God has a plan for each of us. When God blessed us with the gift of life, God made a promise to be with us always. God fulfilled his promise through the gift of his son Jesus and through the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has the power to change us. As with the Apostles, however, change is a growth process that takes time. We change when we are given hope—when someone takes interest in us and believes in us, when we have purpose. Above all, change happens when we are loved. Jesus made it known that he loved the Apostles. Jesus gave them, and gives us, hope. Father concluded his homily by assuring the young people that each of them is loved—by God, their families, and our parish and that each of them matters to God, to the parish, and to the world.

Immediately following the mass, our parish youth enjoyed a delicious dinner catered by Tinga Montclair and fellowship in Larkin Hall. The parish gifted each participant a copy of LifeTeen's 2024 Advent Companion. This pocket guide makes it easy for young people to have daily interactions with the Incarnate Word, Jesus, through the written word of God during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Special thanks to Father Steve, Music Director Stephen Powers, Cantor Chris Janesh, and volunteers Doreen Rearden, Justin Misurell, and Crislie Perry for sharing their time and talents with our youth.

As we begin a new liturgical year, our prayer for the young people of our parish is that they cultivate a deep and meaningful friendship with Jesus and that this friendship is uninterrupted as they grow into adulthood.

With the support of the parish, we look forward to building a Life Teen program here at St. Cassian in 2025 to help young people encounter Jesus Christ—the Way, the Truth, and the Life. At such an influential time in their lives, the Life Teen program is committed to satisfying teens' thirst for the truth by exposing them to Christ and the wholeness of Roman Catholic teachings. To learn more about this exciting new ministry, either for a young person in your life and/or to get involved as an adult volunteer, please contact me at kmisurell@stcassianchurch.org or by phone at (973) 744-2850.

We look forward to sharing updates with you soon and ask for your continued prayers for the young people of the parish along with prayers for a vibrant Life Teen youth group to help guide them. Pictures from Mass and dinner are on the next few pages.

Wishing our parish and school families a blessed and joyous Advent season!

Our annual Christmas Corners event was a great success thanks to the helping hands of many!

It is the collaborative spirit of our community inspired by our love for Christ that makes our school and parish such a special place to worship, learn and work.

There were so many parishioners and school families who came together to make Christmas Corners 2024 memorable!

We are especially grateful to our Home and School Association Leadership Team, who lead the event.

We are also thankful to the many volunteers who made the event possible, the staff members who donated experiences for the silent auction or worked at the event and to the vendors and donors who offered their support.

Our principal, Mrs. Llanes, checking Santa's naughty and nice list!
